Our Restaurants

Chez Muffy $$: 8 rue Saint-Antoine / 418-692-1022 / Our French-Canadian, farmhouse-inspired restaurant where culinary skill, a clever, considered wine program, warm service and conversations meld together. Our local farmers, shermen and producers are as integral to the food we make as they are to our place in this community. Set within in a historic maritime warehouse dating back to 1822 with natural stone walls and wooden beams, the dining room offers a warm atmosphere along with stunning views of the St. Lawrence River. Open every evening, brunch on Sunday, reservations required.

Bar Artéfact $: 8, rue Saint-Antoine / 418-692-2211 extension 6233/ Offering a glimpse into Québec's past, Bar Artéfact showcases relics unearthed on site during a recent excavation dig, such as the Dauphine Battery and window displays filled with objects dating back from six distinct eras in our property's history. Enjoy a light meal and signature drinks from one of the city's most creative cocktail menus, while surrounded by artifacts preserved in time. Open every day from 12pm to 11pm.
