READERS' CHOICE AWARDS

Top 15 Hotels in Canada: Readers' Choice Awards 2022

Condé Nast Traveler readers rate their top hotels in Canada, from Newfoundland to British Columbia.

October 4, 2022

World Heritage sites make for a thoroughly transportive getaway.

This year's first-place winner, Auberge Saint-Antoine, is spread across a series of Colonial-era warehouses in Quebec City's Old Port, with an exceptionally rustic restaurant focus on local flavors. It's not far from ninth-place Hotel 71, whose sleek lobby contrasts dramatically with the centuries-old Quebec City cobblestones out back. The showstopper here, however, has always been the Revivalist-style Fairmont Le Château Frontenac (in 10th place), designed in the late 1800s to mimic the manors of the Loire Valley. Further south in Montreal, Hotel Place d'Armes (#2), Hotel Nelligan (#4), Auberge du Vieux-Port (#8), and Hotel William Gray (#5) are all situated in the city's historic Old Port and feature rooftop terraces where the views stretch to that most timeless feature of all—the mighty St. Lawrence River. —Siobhan Reid
