Go: Located in Quebec City, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Auberge Saint-Antoine is more than a boutique hotel. The family-owned hotel represents a union of timeless elegance, contemporary comfort and effortless convenience at the heart of Canada's richest historical district.

Perched on the shores of the St. Lawrence River and a stone's throw from Musée de la civilisation, the Auberge is just steps away from Place Royale. It is the perfect home base for exploring romantic, historical Québec City. Auberge Saint-Antoine boasts 95 rooms and suites, each with its own unique history.

Their signature French-Canadian, farmhouse-inspired restaurant is where culinary skill, a clever and considered wine program, warm service and conversations meld together at Chez Muffy. Their second restaurant, Bar Artéfact, is set against a casual backdrop, providing the perfect place to catch up with friends over a light meal, boasting one of Québec City's top cocktail menus.

In addition to its place as a landmark hotel in Québec City, Auberge Saint-Antoine is renowned for its impeccable amenities, modern features, and distinctive service that caters to even the most discerning guest. Enjoy luxurious in-room amenities such as heated floors, private terraces, and fireplaces in custom-designed accommodations, and boutique conveniences including a 24-hour business center, valet parking and fully-staffed concierge.

And Do Good: While Auberge Saint-Antoine focuses on green initiatives and improving their sustainable practices consistently, they also ask their staff to get involved. On World Earth day 2021, Auberge employees will participate in a river shore clean-up and joining efforts of The Great Canadian Shoreline Clean-UP. Engaging staff and living out sustainable practices is a high goal of Auberge Saint-Antoine.
