Meryl Pearlstein

It's time to make your New Year's resolution: I will actively fill in the gaps in travel that I've had for the past two years.

There are wonderful choices this year for wine lovers, cruisers, non-cruisers, divers, golfers, island hoppers and pretty much every sort of traveler. Here are some fabulous options to get your wanderlust instincts flowing.

Please note that with changing Covid protocols, restrictions may apply and can change. You should always check the 'Exit and Entry Requirements' for a particular country on the Department of State website before booking.

Cozy Northern Exposure

Member of Relais & Châteaux, boutique Quebec City hotel Auberge Saint-Antoine extends an invitation for dining in a terrace side greenhouse and a comfy winter stay with the Stars & Pillows package. The overnight package is priced starting at $725 per night and includes accommodations in a terrace room with a four-course private dining and wine experience for two in a heated outdoor greenhouse.
